CHORAL CALL TO WORSHIP Majesty Jack Hayford
*CALL TO WORSHIP Liturgist – Kristie Grimaud

Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead,

I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus. Philippians 3:13-14

...and my God shall supply all your need according to His riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Philippians 4:19

(NKJV)

*HYMN OF PRAISE ‘Tis So Sweet to Trust in Jesus No. 462

CALL TO CONFESSION

Does God put us to the test? Do we believe that God will provide what we most need or do we go our own way? This time of confession is not meant to weigh us down with guilt, but to free us to respond to God’s love.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Free us, O God, from such absorption in our own concerns that we forget your loving intention for us. We find it hard to view what is happening around us through any eyes but our own. We obey our own passions rather than joining your intention for the good of all. It is hard for us, who so value our autonomy, to speak of obedience. Yet we are ashamed of things we have done and things we have failed to do. We want to claim your free gift of eternal life through Jesus Christ. We sense that you intend for us to accept and live within that gift here and now. Help us, loving God. Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

We are not under law but under grace. We are being given God’s great bounty as we receive the teaching of Jesus. God comes to us, not only from the past but in every moment when we welcome another with even a cup of water in Christ’s name. We are forgiven and renewed!

SILENT PRAYER and MEDITATION

Genesis 22:1-8

COLLECT

Eternal God, whose provision for us is generous and compassionate, and whose will for us is total commitment in love of you, of neighbor, and of self, keep us from withholding any part of ourselves from obedience and loyalty to you, so we may be free to give genuine welcome to all people, to your honor and glory. Amen.
