Election Day Communion – 11/8

On Tuesday, November 8 (aka “Election Day), there will be two brief services of Holy Communion at 7:00 am and at 12:00 Noon in the St. Paul’s sanctuary. Both services will be brief; providing an open table for all who would like to prayerfully partake in this sacrament of grace. As we gather at the Lord’s Table, we will celebrate that -- beyond the powers that rule our world -- our primary allegiance to God.

Come before or after visiting your polling station to remember the One who first loved us and who we gratefully love and serve in return.

If you are unable to come at 7:00 am or 12 Noon, our friends at Christ Episcopal Church have extended an invitation for the community for an Election Day Communion service at 7:00 pm.

BIBLE WISDOM FOR YOUR FINANCES

Beginning October 30 -- and leading up to our 2017 Commitment Sunday on November 20th -- our worship themes will focus on our relationship and attitude toward money. John Wesley, the Anglican clergyman who established Methodism, preached on the uses of money advising Christians: "Gain all you can, save all you can, and give all you can." Pastor Robb will unpack Wesley's advice as guidance that is both scriptural and practical when it comes to the ways that earn, save, and give our money in ways that truly glorify God and serve His purposes.

MEN'S BREAKFAST NOVEMBER 5TH

Doug Hall, St. Paul's choir member and French hornist for the San Diego Symphony, will speak to the men at our November 5th men's breakfast. It is a good time for food and fellowship. The doors open at 6:30 and we start the serving line promptly at 7:30. Email john@theklinkers.com to sign up.
